"Memories of the Summer of '71"

REUNION and on to '74!

It was perfect CAVU weather with visibility a magnificent 40 miles in the Los Angeles Basin as the first of the 475th's Satan's Angels registered at Del Webb's fabulous Newporter Inn at Newport Beach, Calif., for the distinguished fighter group's 1971 Reunion and Get-together. Graying fighter pilots, crewchiefs, medics, cooks, and clerks - "Angels" all - came from the four corners of the states and the world for a September weekend of camaraderie and "remember-whens".

Paul Peters of the 433rd flew in from Toledo, Ohio, to affectionately greet his former crewchief, sourdough Hank Nosek from Alaska, who sported a beard to prove it.

Not to be outdone in the beard department was Hades Col. Johnny Peitz, goatee et al.

Big Bill Haessig was there from New York State, along with gentleman farmer 431st'er Eddie O'Neill. And from Mexico came Steve Roper, who searched Disneyland for a reunion that wuzn't there....but eventually found ours' rolling along in high gear down the road.

Reunion chronicler C. R. 'Andy' Anderson herewith continues the, at times, bawdy saga of the periodic "Gathering of the Angels".

However, it took a long-distance call to Bob DeHollander in Kalamazoo to be vectored into the right area.

Former Sergeant Tom Ruiz and his charming wife arrived from Santa Fe, N. M. Jack and Liz Purdy flew in from Dayton.

Beautiful Gals

At the registration desk, Barbara Thisted, Anne Madison, Fritzie Stone, Carol Gray, Judy Moreing, and Nancy Rath made the effort of registering a pleasant activity - beautiful gals who made the organizational tasks of reunion director Pete Madison and Ken Holdren and Bascom Jones much easier.

Cocktail Mob

What a mod mob at the first night cocktail party!

Pill roller Dr. Frank Bosse and his lovely wife, Donna, were there from Atchison, Kan., along with 433rd'ers Cal Wire, Paul Peters, Dick Kimball, Jack Purdy, Herbie Cochran, and Jack 'Red' O'Neil, escorted by their wives.

There, too, were Carroll Anderson, Bill Grady, Stan Asplund, E.B. Roberts, Bob Tomberg, Al Stone, George Hjerrold, Al Coburn, John Babel, Don Ashlock, and Doug Hall, and their wives, where applicable.

432nd Represented

Clover Squadron, the 432nd, was represented by Col. Joe Forster of single-engine fame; Tommy Simms, our commandant of cadets, Col. P.J. Dahl, Joe Morrow, Cliff Mann, Leo Blakeley, Jim Guttry.

Art Perego, Dick Walkup, Francis Aye, Joe Zarensky, Eddy Henson, and Dr. Bob Schuh.

The 431st gathered in the evening dusk. And Pete Madison circulated amongst the Hades people reminiscing with Jim Moreing, Hal Gray, John Peitz, Bob Weary, Bascom Jones.

On hand from the 431st, too, were former 431st CO, Verl Jett; Harry Brown, who was CO of McGuire AFB when it was dedicated to McGuire's memory, Tony LeVier, Eddie O'Neill, John Tilley, Howard Max, Dave Hutchins, George Rath, Ken Holdren, Bob Hall, and Dale Thisted. Many were accompanied by their wives; all found friends with whom to talk about the "old" days.

Ed Maloney of the Planes of Fame Air Museum guested with the Carroll Andersons and was able to learn firsthand of the exploits of the finest P-38 fighter group in World War II. Who sez we weren't the best?

On Saturday morning occurred the great (?) 475th Golf Tournament. Divots flew from the frustrated clubs of Howard Max, Bob Tomberg, John Tilley, Bob Weary, Tony Levier, Wally Dean, and Bascom Jones - all who rashly accepted the gauntlet flung down by Hades Jim Moreing.

When the divots stopped sailing and the greens resembled Wewak after a raid and the 19th "Hole" had been drained dry, Cal Wire, Pete Madison, Jack Purdy, Bill Grady, Cliff Mann, John Babel, and Jim Moreing stood aghast as Hal Gray proclaimed himself winner and champion of Satan's Angels - a matter still debated the night of the banquet by Madison and other malcontents.

Meanwhile, artist Bob 'Heavy' Hall sketched all-and-sundry who stopped by the hospitality room for conversation or attitude adjustment.

The night of the banquet, the original "Virginia Marie" posed with her husband, Carroll Anderson, who piloted the P-38 of that name. They admired the scale model of Number 194 made by members of the International Plastic Modelers Society.

Madison gaveled the banquet to order, shortly thereafter and introduced Col. P.J. Dahl. Who can forget 'P.J.'s' "There I wuz at 20,000 feet with my tail booms gone, so I put Phaze Two into operation... and bailed out" story? Glenn Hubbard, a former P-51 jockey with the 375th Fighter Group and a humorist in his own right, sat open-mouthed through it all.

Our honored guest speaker, former 49'er great, Robert DeHaven brought humor and poignant memories to us all with commentary and movies of our former bases in New Guinea and the Philippines.

The filled room grew silent as Moresby flashed upon the screen, 12 Mile, and the strip at Dobadura — unchanged and almost as if awaiting the return of the wide-stanced P-38s. Then on to Tacloban, Mindoro, and Linguyen.

Too soon it was Sunday. We lingered over good-byes, parting with the cry, "See you in Dayton in 1974". The Chairman? Jack Purdy! Be there!
