Dear Satan's Angel:

Jack Purdy has one heckuva reunion planned for AN'S ANGELS this coming September 27th, 28th, 29th, 1974. BE THERE!

In the meantime have you ever wondered where the former pilots of the 475th were and what they were doing? Well, hang onto you gosport 'cause here we go!

Former Lt. Bill Grady retired a Colonel and lives in Seal Beach, California with Jeanette and a few of their nine children. E. B. Roberts lives in Idaho, and he's got eight or nine, too. "Bo" Reeves of the 431st is flying the big, Lockheed from Beale AFB, and Pete Madison is living in La Canada, California while running his printing company. Jack "Red" O'Neill of the 433rd flies the big jets through the Friendly Skies of United while Herbie Cochran remains a factory executive in Decatur, Illinois. Edwin Weaver is back East in Ardmore, Penn., Paul T. Allen is in Santa Rosa, California. Dr. Frank Bosse and Donna live in Atchison, Kansas and Dr. George Best lives in Peoria Heights, Illinois. John Babel Phd. lives in Monterey Park, and Satan's Angels will remember him as one of our tallest.

The dynamic Harry Brown who brought our group its first victories all the way from the 7th of Dec., 1941 when he bagged a couple of Kates in a Curtiss P-36 with one lousy .30 caliber machine gun firing, lives in Alamo, California, while Al and "Birdie" Coburn formerly of the 433rd live near Mineral, Washington. Other Washingtonians are Don Wagner former Line Chief of the 433rd, Robert "Tommy" Tomberg retired Col. USAF and Group CO Colonel Charles MacDonald who was last at Anacortes. Webster Dupre of the 433rd is at Metairie, Louisiana whilst Jack Purdy also of the 433rd lives in Dayton, Ohio. Retired Colonel Joe Forster, who flew the longest single engine mission in a twin engined fighter, about nine hundred miles, lives in Tempe, Arizona with his lovely wife Janis. Incidentally, Joe is handling SATAN'S ANGELS FINANCES, SO SEND MONEY TO HIS ADDRESS 2425 East Fairmont Drive, Tempe Zip: 85282. WE CAN USE THE MONEY! SEND A BUCK!

Thomas Farley of the 433rd is living in Cinnaminson, New Jersey, while Major George Gabik watches the rockets go up from Satellite Beach, Florida. You'll find 431ster Hal Gray in San Carlos, Calif. near Jim and Judy Moreing who live in Menlo Park. Look for Charles "Chuck" Grice in Tin Pan Alley South, Nashville, Tennessee. Glenn Jeakle, "Jake," the man who told me to stop "bitching" because I was going home without firing my guns at a Son of a Nippon lives in Muncie, Indiana. Verle Jett former Ace and CO of Hades Squadron is a retired Colonel living in the beautiful Sierra Nevada Mountains of California or Twain Harte. Our BIG BOSS General George C. Kenney USAF (Ret.) lives at Bay Harbor Islands, Florida, and I'd suggest that everyone of us get off a post card to 10180 West Bay Harbor Drive Zip: 33154 and extend a personal invitation to the best General of all to come to HIS GROUP'S Reunion, because we wouldn't have happened had it not been for this great guy down in Florida. WRITE HIM, NOW!!! Marian Kirby "Just Call Me Kirby" is still hunting oil, (I hope he finds some) and raises "beeves" in Mississippi.

You'll find Warren R. Lewis "Louie" of the 433rd and his Opie at Austin, Texas. Bill Richmond lives there too. John and Rae Loisel have retired from the Air Force and live in Richardson, Texas. You'll find Irving Dan Lowman of the 433rd, in Oklahoma City. Mr. Charles A. Lindberg still lives in Darien, Conn., and everyone hopes he'll drop around to Dayton this year as he did in 1969 at Colorado Springs, Colorado. Bud Lampert is a retired Colonel living in Des Plaines, Illinois and Joe McKeon is a retired Colonel in Baldwin, Long Island. Satan's Angels sure produced a bunch of Colonels!

Look for Glenn Maxwell in Paradise, because that's where he lives in California. Bob Morrell of Possum Squadron is near Kelseyville, California. Wave when going by Sepulveda, California and Frank Morehead of the 432nd will wave back. Thomas Olson is in Houston, Minnesota? Boy, did that city ever get misplaced! Joe Price of "Pick up your gear, Lindy, You aren't flying the Spirit of St. Louis, now!" is at Johnson City, the place of the big flood, Tennessee. And I just finished talking to "Beanie" DuMontier. You guys of the 431st called him "Frenchie", but I knew him long before he joined Hades. I knew the wild Frenchman when we flew the "Iron Dog", the P-39 in the San Francisco Bay Area, and he was "Beanie", then! Try him at P.O. Box 276 Holiday Island, Arkansas 92632. "Pappy" Cline is at Michigan City, Indiana whilst my son and I watch Tony and the Oakland Raiders beat the Kansas City Chiefs. Its wonderful! Donno Bellows is in Fresno, California. And if you're looking to renew friendships with Jack Ballard, he's in San Francisco. Cliff Mann resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

AND FELLAS, this is it! I've run out of money and space. This bit of whimsy has been about the fliers, primarily because they're the ones I've mostly kept in touch with, but it goes without saying that we wouldn't have gone anywhere let alone UP if it hadn't have been for all the guys on the ground who made that maintenance monster, the P-38, GO! To all those wonderful guys and to everyone who has taken the time to get to the bottom of this newsletter, BE THERE AT DAYTON ON SEPTEMBER 27th, 28th, and the 29th and meet your old buddies first hand. Lie a little, drink one or two for old time's sake, AND ENJOY!
